

FROCKSONBIKES

2 Frocks Feature Rides for March 2019:

A ride, a picnic and great entertainment!

Date: Saturday 2 March

The Anthony Harper Summer Theatre production this year is Arthur and promises the usual bawdy routine of ironic and slapstick humour: “an epic tale retold with knights, a holy grail, a wizard and a magical lake!”

This is a free event but a koha is appreciated

Their challenge? to remember their words (or bluff their way through). Your challenge? To arrive by bike!

Meet: from 5.30pm in the Christchurch Botanic Gardens the play takes place on the Murray Aynsley Lawn, near the Heritage Rose Garden. The play starts at 6.30pm

Bring: Picnic finger food to share, bike lights and your bike lock, cushions and warm layers/blankets

This is a family- friendly show

Dress Theme (as usual optional): Come dressed in as ladies, knights and knaves

Celebrating International Women's Day 2019

Date: Sunday 10 March

Our ride will take in highlights, with some new places, from the 125th Anniversary Suffrage Ride we enjoyed back in October

Our guide will take us to significant places of interest in Central Christchurch related to wonderful women from the past to the present

Refreshments: Pegasus Arms around 3pm

Meet: 1pm Armagh Street Gates

Cancelled if wet
